Announcement!

We are joining forces to save horses!

Saving Baby
Equine Charity

HORSERACING WRONGS

After considerable discussion, the Board of Directors of Saving Baby Equine Charity voted unanimously to further our mission in a different manner. It is with great pleasure that we announce the fusion of two organizations. Horseracing Wrongs will become the active entity adding board members from Saving Baby Equine Charity. The team will continue to raise awareness through educational campaigns, animal advocacy with the public and other non-profit organizations, with the media and lawmakers across the country to end horseracing and save equine lives.
